

HIGH STAKES DIVORCE CONFERENCE.

In a lawyers conference room a husband and wife stare at each other
The husband sits sullen as the wife calmly gets up, removes the ring from her finger
Keeps it right on the table and putts it towards him.

The husband eyes follows the movement of the ring as the ring rolls to the edge of the table.

PRINCIPALS OFFICE

At an elite business school, a student sits across a panel.

His father is seated beside him, impeccably dressed.

The dean explains the issue: an academic violation. Or the son can be Disshelved

While the dean speaks, the fathers eyes focused on the pen, seated silently, picks it up.

On the polished table, he begins a slow, perfect putting stroke.

Back. Through. Stops. Resets. No one looks at the son anymore.

All eyes of the decision board track the pen.
